ALMA MATER

Pure as the dawn on the brow of thy beauty
Watches thy soul from the mountains of God
Over the Fates of thy children departed
Far from the land where their footsteps have trod.
Beacon of Hope in the ways dreary lighted;
Pride of our hearts that are loyal and true;
From those who adore unto one who adores us—
Mother of Mothers, we sing unto you.

We, with our faces turned high to the Eastward Proud of our place in the vanguard of Truth, Will sing unto thee a new song of thanksgiving—Honor to God and the Springtime of Youth. Shout for the victory or tear for the vanquished; Sunshine or tempest thy heart is e'er true; Pride of the hills and the white-laden Lowlands—Mother of Mothers, we kneel unto you.

Ever the Legions of Sin will assail us,
Even the Battle in Cities afar;
Still in the depth will thy Spirit eternal
Beckon us on like a piloting Star.
Down the dim years do thy dead children call thee,
Wafted to sleep while the Springtime was new;
We, of the Present, thy Hope of the Future—
Mother of Mothers, we pray unto you.

THE UNIVERSITY MACE AND BATONS

The mace and batons are symbols of the authority and history of the University and are made from balusters from the original main staircase of Old Main, erected in 1875, the oldest University building now standing. The batons are carried by members of the faculty who are serving as marshals.

Marshals' Gowns

The gowns worn by the marshals are of the traditional University color, cardinal red.

HONOR STOLES

White or cardinal stoles denote students who are candidates for University Honors. Cardinal represents Honors (cum laude) and white represents High Honors (magna cum laude). White stoles with cardinal and white cords represent Highest Honors (summa cum laude).

THE UNIVERSITY SONG

In 1909 a prize of fifty dollars was offered for the best poem relating to the University of Arkansas that should be capable of being set to music and used as a college song. Out of many entries, that of Mr. Brodie Payne, '1906, of Hot Springs won the prize. The words were set to music by Professor H. D. Tovey, Director of the Conservatory of Music and Art at the University.

ACADEMIC REGALIA

The styles of gowns differentiate degree level. Trim of doctoral gowns indicates nature of degree (black or royal blue — Ph.D.; light blue — Ed.D.). Certain members of the faculty wear distinctive gowns and hoods authorized by their doctoral institutions. The lining of the hood denotes the color(s) of the institution awarding the degree. The official colors of the University of Arkansas are cardinal and white.

The color of the velvet band around the hood designates the academic degree of the wearer. Some examples are listed below:

	Fine Arts Dark Brown
	ForestryRussett Human Envi. Sci Maroon
	HumanitiesCrimson
	JournalismCrimson
	LawPurple

THE UNIVERSITY SEAL

The Seal of the University of Arkansas is affixed to each diploma and is stamped in gold on each diploma cover. The central element in the Seal is the front entrance to Old Main, the oldest building on campus.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT

His Excellency Ricardo Martinelli Honorary Doctorate of Humane Letters, L.H.D.

Ricardo Martinelli, president of the Republic of Panama, is the first University of Arkansas alumnus to become a head of state. He credits the business skills and business ethics he learned as a student at the University of Arkansas as the best preparation he received to become both a business leader and political leader in Panama.

Martinelli earned a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration (1973) from the university and a Master of Business Administration from the Central American Institute of Business Administration in Costa Rica. He returned to Panama and joined a small company, Super 99, building it into Panama's leading supermarket chain.

The 1989 U.S. invasion of Panama to arrest military strongman Manuel Noriega led to weeks of rioting throughout the country. Many Super 99 stores were heavily damaged, and the company faced bankruptcy. Martinelli, who now owned the company, spent five years rebuilding Super 99 to its dominant place in Panama business.

Starting in 1999, Martinelli played a central role in one of the most significant events in modern Panamanian history: he oversaw the transfer of the Panama Canal from the U.S. to Panama, serving as chairman of the board of directors for the Panama Canal Authority and minister of canal affairs.

Martinelli received the Distinguished Alumni Award from the Arkansas Alumni Association in 2002, and is currently a member of the Campaign Arkansas Steering Committee. But his biggest accomplishments were still ahead of him.

Martinelli first ran for president in 2004, finishing last, with only 5.3 percent of the vote. In 2009 he ran again, putting together a campaign that appealed to business leaders, conservatives, and the nation's low-income voters. He was elected with 60 percent of the vote.

As president, Martinelli has worked to improve Panama's economy and fight corruption, but his main emphasis has been to increase the quality of all schools in Panama.

Martinelli has always emphasized the importance of education. He and his wife set up a charitable foundation that has given millions of dollars to poor students for scholarships. He established the Ricardo Martinelli Scholarship at the University of Arkansas and is working with the university to bring more Panamanian students to Fayetteville while developing on-site University of Arkansas programs in Panama. With his support the first international chapter of the Arkansas Alumni Association was established in Panama in 2010.

President Ricardo Martinelli has often joked that he considers himself to be "Arkansas' Ambassador to the World," but it is obvious that he deeply values his ties to the state, and to the University of Arkansas.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT

Lee Bodenhamer
Honorary Doctorate of Arts and Humane Letters, D.A.H.

Lee Bodenhamer was born in El Dorado, Ark., and earned a bachelor's degree in accounting (1957) and a master's degree in finance (1961) at the University of Arkansas. He studied under Harold Dulan, the renowned professor credited with inventing the variable annuity investment tool. He also worked for Dulan's Fayetteville company, the Participating Annuity Life Insurance Co., starting as a student and ultimately serving as comptroller, secretary-treasurer and vice president of investments.

Bodenhamer attended Harvard Business School and received his doctorate in business administration in 1968. During his summer break he returned to Arkansas and started the First Variable Life Insurance Co. in Little Rock, a pioneering firm in the commercial use of the variable annuity in life insurance. He returned to Harvard and was on the Business School faculty until 1970, when he left to focus on his company. He served as president and chief investment officer for First Variable until selling the company in 1985.

Bodenhamer also created Meridian Management in 1977 as an investment subsidiary of First Variable. Meridian became an independent organization in 1983, and Bodenhamer continued to work with Meridian's investment clients until he retired in 2001.

Bodenhamer established his charitable foundation, the Bodenhamer Foundation, in 1986. It provides financial support for community service groups, public health organizations and higher education institutions in Arkansas.

The Bodenhamer Fellowships are perhaps his most enduring legacy. Established at the University of Arkansas, the fellowships are open to all Arkansas students and provide up to $50,000 for four years of study or $62,500 for an accredited, five-year degree program at the University of Arkansas. The fellowships are intended to keep Arkansas' best and brightest high school students in the state and strengthen the U of A's academic environment.

The Bodenhamer Foundation also helped to endow the Robert E. Kennedy Chair in Finance and the Harold Dulan Chair in Capital Formation at the university.

Lee Bodenhamer has served the university in several capacities, most notably as a member of the Campaign for the Twenty-First Century Steering Committee. He is a member of the University of Arkansas Board of Advisors, and he and his wife, Beverly, also serve as co-treasurers of the current Campaign Arkansas.

For his generous support of the University of Arkansas, Bodenhamer has been recognized as a charter member in both the Towers of Old Main and the Chancellor's Society. He also received the Volunteer of the Year in 2004 and Chancellor's Medal in 2009.

In 2008, Lee Bodenhamer was inducted into the Arkansas Business Hall of Fame and was named one of "25 Living Legends" in 2009 by Arkansas Business.

Bethany Claire Chesshir Fulbright College Student Speaker

Bethany "Claire" Chesshir, of Little Rock, Arkansas is an Honors College Fellow with a double major in psychology and biology. She graduated with honors from Little Rock Christian Academy in 2009. Claire received a National Merit Scholarship, Arkansas Governor's Distinguished Scholarship and an Honors College Research Grant. She has spent her years in Fulbright College in the laboratory honing her research skills. She conducted research in psychology studying autobiographical memories and social psychology and she spent summer months at Arkansas Children's Hospital researching the transition of care from pediatric to adult medicine, ethics in medicine and psychology, and developing an educational module on exercise activities for children. Claire presented a poster entitled "Comparing Ethical Codes: Medicine and Psychology" at the APA Annual Convention last August and has most recently had an article accepted for publication in the Journal of Pediatric Nursing entitled "Transition of Health Care from Pediatric to Adult Providers".

Claire studied abroad last summer in Sweden where she visited local hospitals, clinics and community organizations which provided exposure to critical care and health promotion issues through a partnership with the School of Health Sciences at Jonkoping University.

Claire has served as the Vice President and secretary of the premedical honor society, Alpha Epsilon Delta, served as an officer in Kappa Kappa Gamma, and was a PanHellenic Recruitment Counselor. She has been an active volunteer serving as a tutor to a local elementary school and has served as a youth leader in her church.

Claire will continue her studies after graduation at the University of Arkansas Medical School and plans to pursue a medical career in pediatrics.

2013 COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

Neil B. Ingels, Jr.

Neil B. Ingels, Jr. received his bachelor's degree in electrical engineering from the University of Arkansas in 1959. After graduating, Dr. Ingels spent three years in industry, first as an engineer for Sperry Utah Engineering Laboratory in Salt Lake City, then for Lockheed Missiles and Space Division in Sunnyvale, Calif. In 1962, Dr. Ingels began his career at the Palo Alto Medical Research Foundation (PAMRF) in Palo Alto, Calif. In 1963, he earned a master's degree in electrical engineering from Santa Clara University. In 1967, he received a doctorate in electrical engineering from Stanford University, where he was a Hewlett-Packard Fellow.

At PAMRF, Dr. Ingels began as a research associate in the bioengineering and physiology division. In this position, he headed a team that invented a technique to monitor heart motion that has led to breakthrough discoveries about how the heart pumps blood and has influenced the treatment of heart disease, post-operative heart care and mitral valve repair.

In 1978, Dr. Ingels became chairman of the department of cardiovascular physiology and biophysics at PAMRF. In addition to this position, Dr. Ingels has been a consulting associate professor in the Stanford electrical engineering department. He is currently a consulting professor of cardiothoracic surgery at Stanford and an adjunct professor in the College of Engineering at the University of Arkansas.

Dr. Ingels has served as a senior board member and inaugural fellow of the Biomedical Engineering Society, a fellow of the Council on Basic Science for the American Heart Association, a meeting chairman for the Cardiovascular System Dynamics Society, a member of the Cardiovascular and Pulmonary Study Section of the National Institutes of Health, a NASA Life Sciences Peer Reviewer, a member of the American Physiological Society, the American Association for the Advancement of Science, the Biophysical Society, the Institute of Biological Engineering, the Society for Heart Valve Disease, and the Arkansas Academy of Electrical Engineering. In 2006 he received an Honorary Doctorate from Linköping University in Linköping, Sweden. In 2008 he received a Distinguished Alumnus Award from the College of Engineering at the University of Arkansas.

Dr. Ingels holds a patent for an automated bacterial colony counter, and has published nearly 200 peer-reviewed articles and four books, including two on his favorite pastime, coaching youth soccer, which led to his service as the National Director of Coaching for the American Youth Soccer Organization. He and his wife Judy currently reside in Palo Alto, California.
